Once admitted into the program, individuals are assigned a spot in the program for 90 days, which can be extended on a case by case basis. In severe weather events, individuals may be admitted through the hypothermia program. Hypothermia assignments are only extended as conditions are met with no set length of stay. Guests in the emergency shelter program receive access to Open Doors case management, and a variety of specialized support services, such as healthcare. This is thanks to Open Doors' collaboration and operational partners. Call 540.705.1908 if you have questions regarding the shelter program. This number is not for emergencies and is not monitored 24/7.
